EXPERIMENTS WITH PEACE

- a book celebrating Peace at Johan Galtung's 80th anniversary

Impatient, provocative and prolific in his pursuit of Peace through research, publishing and commentary, Johan Galtung seems to defy nature and reaches 80 October 24 2010, without the slightest sign of slowing down.

Thousands of articles, books, tapes and footage are spread over five continents from the path Johan continues to leave behind as he tours the world and inspires peoples to seek peace through peaceful means.

Forewords by archbishop Desmond Tutu and Narayan Desai and 37 other contributions celebrate peace and nonviolent struggle for justice and peaceful resolution of conflicts.

Born in between-war Europe, on 24 October 1930, professor Johan Galtung's has dedicated his life to the pursuit of peace. He has twisted, squeezed, analyzed and scrutinized PEACE from all angles. His experiments with peace has enigorated and challenged friend and foe alike. And now that he turns 80, his friends and colleagues want to celebrate this through a compilation of articles written exclusively for this occasion, with a tabula gratulatoria where we invite you to join us.

«I love to salute this peacemaker on his 80th birthday. I know he will celebrate it at many events in many countries. I am told that he will use all these opportunities as he has used his life. As a Peacemaker.»

Foreword by Desmond Tutu, Archbishop and Nobel Laurate

«Today [Johan's] extraordinary and exemplary labour is recognized not only by those who work for peace, but also by those who are directly engaged in wars. Not only cupboards in the UN and UNESCO libraries are filled with books and papers produced by him, but his advice is often sought as an expert by conflicting parties.»

Foreword by Narayan Desai, Gandhian scholar and activist
